

Tokyo, JAPAN – March 23, 2011

TOKYO KEIKI INC.
President: Kenichi Waki

Impact of the 2011 Earthquake off the Pacific Coast of Tohoku
on TOKYO KEIKI INC.
(5th update)

TOKYO KEIKI Group and its employees express deep condolences for victims of the March 11, 2011 earthquake off the Pacific Coast of Tohoku.

This disaster has impacted the operations of TOKYO KEIKI INC. as outlined below.

	Location	Operating Hours and Status
1	Tokyo Headquarters	- Normal hours
2	Sendai Sales Office (Sendai City, Miyagi Prefecture)	- Because of current circumstances in Sendai, offices hours are 9:00 to 12:00. - Telephone and other communications with this office outside of these hours shall be routed to our Tokyo office.
3	Nasu Plant (Nasu-cho, Tochigi Prefecture)	- These factories and facilities are located in areas of scheduled power outages by Tokyo Electric Power Co. (TEPCO) and operating hours are being revised accordingly. This is having some effect on production and shipments. - Shortage of fuel over a wide area of Tochigi Prefecture is affecting distribution. This is impacting some deliveries of parts and material from suppliers as well as shipments of Tokyo Keiki products.
4	Yaita Plant (Yaita-shi, Tochigi Prefecture)
5	Sano Plant (Sano-shi, Tochigi Prefecture)
6	Tanuma Plant (Sano-shi, Tochigi Prefecture)
7	Hanno Plant (Hanno-shi, Saitama Prefecture)
8	Shizuoka Sales Office (Numazu City, Shizuoka Prefecture)	- This office is located in the area (Group 3) affected by TEPCO's rolling power outage. - Although operations at this office will continue during this blackout, telephone, fax, and electronic mail communications will be halted.
9	Other sales offices and facilities	- Normal hours

At this time, all effort is being made to restore and maintain production and delivery schedules but we regret that there may be unavoidable delays to customers until the situation returns to normal. Our sincere apologies for any inconveniences caused and may we ask your forbearance during this difficult time.

Any relevant changes to our operations shall be promptly informed at our website.