

Tokyo, JAPAN – April 14, 2011

TOKYO KEIKI LTD
President: Kenichi Waki

Impact of the 2011 Earthquake off the Pacific Coast of Tohoku
on TOKYO KEIKI INC
(7th update)

TOKYO KEIKI Group and its employees express deep condolences for victims of the March 11, 2011 earthquake off the Pacific Coast of Tohoku.

This disaster has impacted the operations of TOKYO KEIKI INC. as outlined below.

	Location	Operating Hours and Status
1	Tokyo Headquarters	- Normal hours.
2	Sendai Sales Office (Sendai City, Miyagi Prefecture)	- Normal hours.
3	Nasu Plant (Nasu-cho, Tochigi Prefecture)	- Scheduled power blackouts by Tokyo Electric Power Co. (TEPCO) have been called off and normal operations have resumed. - We are continuing to monitor and evaluate the effect of evacuation orders and other concerns related to the earthquake, tsunami and nuclear power plant disasters on parts and material supply.
4	Yaita Plant (Yaita-shi, Tochigi Prefecture)
5	Sano Plant (Sano-shi, Tochigi Prefecture)
6	Tanuma Plant (Sano-shi, Tochigi Prefecture)
7	Hanno Plant (Hanno-shi, Saitama Prefecture)
8	Shizuoka Sales Office (Numazu City, Shizuoka Prefecture)	- Normal hours.
9	Other sales offices and facilities	- Normal hours

There has been some delay of production and shipments and we sincerely regret and apologize for any inconveniences caused. We are continuing to do our utmost to deal with this situation and ask for your patience during this difficult time.

Any relevant changes to our operations shall be promptly informed at our website.